บทสนทนา

INSTRUCTOR NOTE: Ask the class to practice these conversation examples then ask individual students to come to the front of the class and use these sentences in a conversation. One student should start by asking the other student "Are you hungry?" This exercise is a rehearsal for the conversation game described below.

1. Yes, I'm hungry. Are you?
2. Yes, I'm hungry. Let's eat!
3. Yes, I'm hungry. Do you want to go to a restaurant?
4. No, I'm not. I ate already.
5. No, I'm not hungry. I don't feel good.

CONVERSATION GAME

เกมบทสนทนา

INSTRUCTOR NOTE: Ask two students to stand up and read the following dialog. One student should play the role of Cammy and the other should play the role of Dylan. Encourage them to add facial expressions and emotions that match the sentences they are speaking.

Cammy

1. Hey Dylan.
2. Nothing. What's up with you?
3. Nope. I'm hungry. Let's eat.
4. My mom made a sandwich for me.
5. I think it's ham and cheese.
6. No, my mom thinks potato chips aren't healthy.
7. I have an apple. Do you want any?
8. Sure. What are you going to drink?
9. I've got some milk. I can give you some.
10. I wish I had some chocolate milk.
11. Maybe we can get some after school.
12. We can go to 7-Eleven.

Dylan

- Hi Cammy.
What's up?
- Nothing.
Did you eat lunch yet?
- OK.
What do you have in your lunch box?
- What kind of sandwich is it?
- Do you have any potato chips?
- I know but I like them anyway.
- No, I don't.
Do you want any grapes?
- I'm just going to have water.
How about you?
- Thanks.
- Me too.
I love chocolate milk.
- Where do you want to go?
- Ok.
I'll look for you at 4 o'clock.
