

Lesson 5: What do you want to eat?

Name: _____

Date: _____

Vocabulary and Pronunciation คำศัพท์และการออกเสียง

INSTRUCTOR NOTE: Ask to see students' notebooks and dictionaries. Ask them to pronounce the words listed below three times. They should look up the words in their dictionaries and write the Thai equivalent in the space provided.

| English      | ภาษาไทย | English    | ภาษาไทย |
|--------------|---------|------------|---------|
| Papaya salad |         | Fried rice |         |
| It's         |         | Really     |         |
| Favorite     |         | Japanese   |         |
| Pizza        |         | Anything   |         |
| Shrimp       |         | Hungry     |         |

Conversation บทสนทนา

INSTRUCTOR NOTE: Ask the class to practice these conversation examples then ask individual students "Are you hungry?" This exercise is a rehearsal for the conversation game described below.

1. I want papaya salad! It's my favorite food.
2. I want some pizza. How about you?
3. I want shrimp fried rice. Where can we get some?
4. I really want some Japanese food. Do you like sushi?
5. I don't want anything. I'm not hungry.

Grammar ไวยากรณ์

- It's = it is
- Don't = do not
- I'm = I am

Conversation Game เกมบทสนทนา

INSTRUCTOR NOTE: Ask two students to stand up in front of the class. One student should ask the other student "What do you want to eat?" The second student should respond using one of the conversation examples shown above or else use their imagination to think of something more creative. Their response should contain a question that continues the conversation. Both students should respond appropriately using as many words as possible. Encourage them to continue the conversation with at least three pairs of responses.
