

EPS4 Lesson 18: AR

Name: _____

Date: _____

WEEKLY VOCABULARY: The R sound is notoriously difficult for Thai students to pronounce. Say each word and ask the class to repeat after you three times. Translate each word into the closest Thai equivalent using a dictionary app on your phone. Now walk around the room and ask each student to repeat it until their pronunciation is satisfactory. Randomly ask students what the word means in Thai. When you're finished say the word again and ask the class to repeat after you three more times.

READING EXERCISE: Read the following sentences to the class and ask them to repeat after you two times, then ask individual students to read one sentence.

1. Start the car.
2. Go to the park.
3. Work on a farm.
4. Birthday party.
5. Are you ready?
6. Go to the market.
7. English is hard.
8. A star is very far.
9. That dog will bark.
10. Open the jar.

TRANSLATION EXERCISE: Tell students to write today's vocabulary words in the spaces below. English on the left and Thai on the right. Encourage them to use their dictionaries. Some students will do this during the vocabulary exercise but less motivated students will go more slowly and need coaxing.

VOCABULARY GAME: Ask two students to go to the board and get ready to write. Go to the back of the room and ask a third student to pick a word from today's lesson. Call out the word and see who can write it correctly first. Now ask the first two students to pick two more students for the next round. You can divide the students into two teams to make this more competitive.

PRONUNCIATION EXERCISE: Read the following sentences out loud to the class and ask them to repeat after you three times, then ask individual students to read one of them. Remind students that the R sound is similar to the Thai ร.

R ร

1. The star is very far.
2. The jar is hard to open.
3. The dog will bark at a car.
4. Are you afraid of the dark?
5. Go from the farm to the market.
6. What time does the party start?
